Dear Mr. Casey,

Good Day! As the president of the club I extend to you an invitation to appear as a lecturer. The members of the club, the students of U. of E. and the community would welcome the chance of listening to you.

Our club treasury is not very large, but we can provide transportation, meals, we have a fine guest house, and we might be able to come up with a small fee.

I am sure the city of Evansville would welcome the chance to hear you or one of your upper echelon officers speak. We want to make this available to the public at no charge. We have an opening for any day in the spring. I ask that you send me the list of dates that you would be available. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Henry A. Hendricks, President
Criminal Justice Student Organization
